

Entrepreneurs create companies that better the world and strengthen economies. E2E's mission is for our ecosystem to be the beating heart that makes it happen.

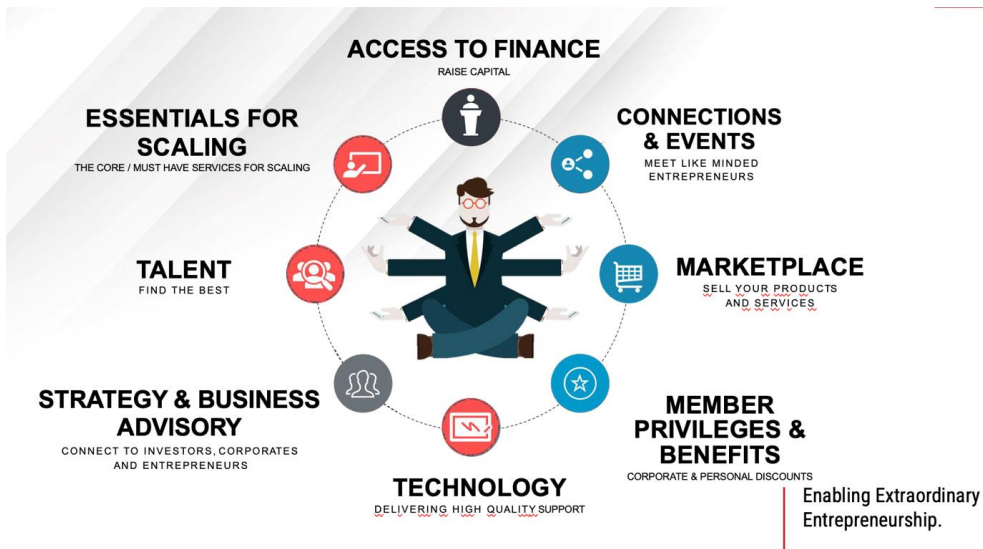

E2E is proud to provide access to finance, connections & events, mentoring, non-executive director recruitment and the key services an SME needs for the best chance of future success.

E2E was founded in 2011 by Shalini Khemka with the support of Sir Richard Branson (former honorary president). Shalini is a Deal Maker for the UK Government, a Member of the Mayor of London's Business Advisory Board and alongside Baroness Kramer an Advisor to Market Finance.

Over the last decade, E2E has supported thousands of companies both in their business challenges and by hosting entrepreneurs at circa. 400 events, with 300+ influential speakers in 11 cities across the UK.

Today, the E2E community consists of 24,000 British SMEs who contribute £213 billion in turnover to the UK economy and employ more than 1.15 million people. Some of our Member companies include LADBible, Cloudreach, Moonpig, OakNorth, Ocado, Yo! Sushi, Channel IT, lastminute.com, Worldpay and many more.

E2E's vision is build a community, that together, can change the world.
